

Nia Cultural Arts and Education Program presents

The Fourth Annual “Open a Child’s Eyes to Art”

You are cordially invited to attend this Intercultural, intergenerational, and interactive community arts event

Tuesday, October 27, 2009

New Hazlett Theater

Allegheny Center East

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15212

5pm—8 pm

We welcome attendees of all ages to bring a piece of their favorite cotton fabric measuring at least 5X12 inches to participate in creating a community quilt.

The event will feature a silent auction and exhibit the “Show Me Some Love”

Light refreshments will be served.

quilt design challenge entries
(Please visit www.ymwaha.org for further details)

PayPal will be available for Silent Auction purchases.

“Helpful Hands” This award-winning quilt
Created by children ages 6-12 years old was facilitated in 2006 by Master Quilter Ruth Ward

Nia Cultural Arts and Education Programs are made possible by:

Young Men & Women’s African Heritage Association, Inc.

1205 Boyle Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15212
Phone: 412-322-4008
Fax: 412-322-4903
E-mail: info@ymwaha.org
Website: www.ymwaha.org

Janice Parks, Executive Director

